

2018 EAHIL Council Election - Candidate Statement
Country	Slovenia
Name	Mr David Ožura
Affiliation	Institute of Oncology Ljubljana, Slovenia
My professional education and experience	I graduated in philosophy and sociology of culture at the University of Ljubljana, Faculty of Arts. I was working as an editor and a project manager in publishing industry from 2005 till 2010. I am working as librarian for last 9 years, among other as a librarian at The National and University Library and The Slovenian Academy of Sciences and Arts. Since 2015 I am the Head Librarian of the Special library at the Institute of Oncology in Ljubljana, the member of Slovenian Consortia for International Scientific Literature, the president of Group for publishing at Institute of Oncology Ljubljana. Since 2017 I am the member of Editorial board of Slovene oncological open access journal Onkologija, the member of Editorial board of Slovene librarian journal Knjižničarske novice and the member of the Executive board of Special libraries section at The Slovenian Library Association.
What I think is special about EAHIL	A unique organisation that brings together European biomedical librarians. EAHIL events are an excellent way of getting new ideas and to meet with new methods, approaches and practices. It is an opportunity for networking and making new collaborations and friendships throughout Europe and wider.
What I expect to contribute to EAHIL Council	sharing knowledge, experiences and best practices, represent Slovene biomedical libraries and librarians
What I think are the most important issues for European health information professionals in 2019-2022	open science, rapid development of ICT and artificial intelligence, evolving/changing/new/obsolete roles of health information professionals, changes in information generation and use, health information professionals as information providers and educators
My one-line statement for my election campaign	together we can turn today's challenges into tomorrow's opportunities	