

2018 EAHIL Council Election - Candidate Statement
Country	Sweden
Name	Elisabeth Nylander
Affiliation	Jönköping University
My professional education and experience	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • MSc Digital Libraries from the Swedish School of Library and Information Science, Borås, Sweden • Liaison and instruction librarian for the School of Health and Welfare, Jönköping University, Sweden • Research Training Institute Fellow, Medical Library Association, USA
What I think is special about EAHIL	Even though EAHIL is a well-established and comprehensive network, my impression is that members tend to be curious and innovative. I feared that EAHIL would be a static and rigid organization, but my experience is that it is stimulating and lively.
What I expect to contribute to EAHIL Council	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • I will actively work for Increased membership engagement within Sweden. • I am passionate about evidence-based practice, and as a result, I am happy and equipped to report in on library and information science findings from Sweden. • I am also currently a fellow of the Medical Library Association Research Training Institute, so I can offer insight on research trends from my North American network as well.
What I think are the most important issues for European health information professionals in 2019-2022	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Continuing education, i.e. ensuring that expertise is passed on within the profession. • Transparency within our organizations, i.e. ensuring that our employers and target groups understand what support/service we can offer.
My one-line statement for my election campaign	Will work actively with EAHIL members to support continuing education and evidence-based practice within medical and health science libraries.
