

2016 EAHIL COUNCIL ELECTION - CANDIDATE STATEMENT
Name	Ms Louise Farragher	Country	Ireland
Affiliation	Health Research Board, Dublin
I have worked in (health) library practice	10-15 years	Education	Master's (MSc / MLIS / MA)
My professional education and experience	After graduating with an MLIS from University College Dublin in 2001, I worked as a hospital librarian before joining the Health Research Board to work in the National Drugs Library. In 2007 I completed an MSc Health Services Research at University College Galway. I subsequently moved to the HRB Evidence Centre where I now work as an Information Specialist with a multidisciplinary team of researchers producing rapid reviews of health research evidence to inform government health policy.
What I think is special about EAHIL	EAHIL is special because its membership reflects the wonderfully diverse cultures of Europe and beyond, and because of it is more than just a 'professional association', it is an association of friends.
What I expect to contribute to EAHIL Council	I would like to develop better communications between the Irish Health Sciences Libraries Group and EAHIL, and I would like to improve communication and the exchange of ideas between Irish EAHIL members and the wider EAHIL membership, EAHIL Council and EAHIL Board.
What I think are the most important issues for European health information professionals in 2017-2020	Data management; licensing and electronic access management; strategic thinking & funding; change management
My one-line statement for my election campaign	Committed to serving & promoting Irish health libraries at home and in Europe
